this indicated that over 90 of staff had access to a computer at home.

maybe you can write next articles referring to this article screening methods to detect alcohol problems in this population, and treatment and prevention approaches.